Phase One

Summary: Where the Marvel Cinematic Universe all began. While Iron Man may have been the very first film released, the Second World War-set Captain America comes first on the timeline. The rest plays mainly out in release order, minus Brie Larson's Captain Marvel. Released as part of Phase Three, the film takes place in the mid-Nineties (when Nick Fury still had both eyes) and therefore lands in the Phase One chronology.

1. Captain America: The First Avenger (1943 – 1945)
2. Agent Carter (seasons one and two)
3. Agent Carter (one-shot — Iron Man 3 DVD)
4. Captain Marvel (1995)
5. Iron Man (2010)
6. Iron Man 2 (2011)
7. The Incredible Hulk (2011)
8. The Consultant (one-shot — Thor DVD)
9. A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To Thor's Hammer (one-shot — Captain America: First Avenger DVD)
10. Thor (2011)
11. Avengers (2012)
12. Item 47 (one-shot — Avengers DVD)

Phase Two

Summary: Phase Two also plays out almost exactly in release order, except Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2, which comes directly after the first Guardians (like Captain Marvel, the film was released in Phase Three but actually takes place before then). Also of note, one-shots were phased out during Phase Two as the Netflix shows and Agents of Shield were introduced. For those who do embark on watching Agents of Shield (the second and third seasons are great), you should definitely watch along with the movies as their cinematic counterparts have major effects on the show's story.

13. Iron Man 3 (2012)
14. All Hail the King (one-shot — Thor: The Dark World)
15. Agents of Shield (season one: episodes 1 — 7)
16. Thor: The Dark World (2013)
17. Agents of Shield (season one: episodes 8 — 16)
18. Captain America: The Winter Soldier (2014)
19. Agents of Shield (season one: episodes 17 — 22)
20. Guardians of the Galaxy (2014)
21. Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2 (2014)
22. Daredevil (season one)
23. Agents of Shield (season two: episodes 1 — 19)
24. Avengers: Age of Ultron (2015)
25. Agents of Shield (season two: episodes 20 — 22)
26. Ant-Man (2015)
27. Jessica Jones (season one)
28. Daredevil (season two)
29. Agents of Shield (season three: episodes 1 — 19)

Phase Three

Summary: Made it this far? Well done, you've watched a whole lot of Marvel! Phase Three marks some of the best MCU movies so far, but also some timeline bending difficulties. For instance, Doctor Strange begins before Civil War, but finishes after Civil War, Slingshot features lots of flashbacks, and Agents of Shield season five features a lot of obscure time travelling.

31. Agents of Shield (season three: episodes 20 — 22)
32. Luke Cage (season one)
33. Agents of Shield (season four: episodes 1 — 8)
34. Agents of Shield: Slingshot (web series)
35. Agents of Shield (season four: episodes 9 — 22)
36. Iron Fist (season one)
37. The Defenders (season one)
38. Spider-Man: Homecoming (2016)
39. Doctor Strange (2016 – 2017)
40. The Punisher (season one)
41. Runaways (season one)
42. Black Panther (2017)
43. Agents of Shield (season five, episodes 1 — 19)
44. Cloak and Dagger (season one)
45. Jessica Jones (season two)
46. Inhumans (season one)
47. Luke Cage (season two)

58. Spider-Man: Far From Home (2019)
